

Forest Park Nature Center Trail

Only .07 of 1% of Illinois remains as the first settlers found it. Forest Park comprises some of that vanishing land. To further protect this rare treasure, the Peoria Park District and the Forest Park Foundation have dedicated this park as an Illinois State Nature Preserve.

More than 80,000 people annually benefit from Forest Park's interpretive and recreational programs.

For more information, visit: <https://peoriaparks.org/places/fpnc/>